

Opening of On-Campus Access Points

As stated in the Guidelines for Activities at Nagoya University During the Novel Coronavirus (COVID-19) Pandemic, when Nagoya University is under Category A or B (Educational Activities Levels 1-3), on-campus Access Points will be made available to students who do not have an adequate internet environment (who do not have internet access or who lack a computer or other device).

Conditions for use and eligible students vary by Activity Level. Please check the current Activity Level, then complete the procedures as described below.

1. Access Point Locations

For information about each undergraduate and graduate school's Access Point locations, please see Section 5. Access Points and Contact Information.

[Educational Activities: Level 3]

Lecture rooms or other areas designated by each undergraduate and graduate school (computer labs where internet access or computers are available, or lecture rooms where both are available.)

[Educational Activities: Level 1 or 2]

Computer labs designated by the undergraduate or graduate school and the Institute of Liberal Arts and Sciences.

2. Conditions for Use and Students with Permission to Use Access Points

(1) Conditions for Students to Use Access Points

- Students who do not have an adequate internet environment (who do not have internet access or who lack a computer or other device)
- Students who are not in bad physical condition (must take a temperature at home and do not come to school if you have a fever)

(2) Students with Permission to Use Access Points

[Educational Activities: Level 3]

① Eligible Students

As a rule, Access Points are only available to students who have informed the administration office of their undergraduate or graduate school that they do not have an adequate internet environment (who do not have internet access or lack a computer or other device) at least one day in advance.

In addition, students who have already borrowed a Wi-Fi router from the university are recommended to continue using the router until its return date.

② How to Use the Access Points

Notify your undergraduate or graduate school administration office in advance.

*For contact information for all undergraduate and graduate schools, please see Section 5. Access Points and Contact Information.

[Educational Activities: Level 1 or 2]

① Eligible Students

Access is restricted to students who do not have a computer or other device.

(Other students may use the campus Wi-Fi in other open spaces on campus.)

② How to Use the Access Points

Notify your undergraduate or graduate school administration office in advance.

(Students who wish to use the Liberal Arts and Sciences Main Building should contact the Institute of Liberal Arts and Sciences Administration Office.)

*For contact information for all undergraduate and graduate schools, please see Section 5. Access Points and Contact Information.
