

Opening search for Professor, Graduate School of Education and Human Development
(Department of Educational Sciences, Lifelong Education and Development Course, Adult and Lifelong Education Area), Nagoya University, Japan

1. Position Title: Professor
Number of Openings: Professor
2. Area of Specialization: Social and Lifelong Education, Adult Education
3. Duties and Responsibilities:
 - 1) Graduate School: Hold seminars, and supervise theses and dissertations dealing with “Social and Lifelong Education,” and “Social Education”
 - 2) Undergraduate School: Teach courses dealing with “Social Education Lecture” “Social Education Seminar” “Fieldwork in Social and Industrial Education Survey” “General Principles and Organization of Lifelong Education,” and direct graduation theses
 - 3) Teach university-wide general education courses in Liberal Arts and Sciences, and Teacher-training courses
 - 4) Perform managerial duties related to various projects and committees of the University, or Graduate School
 - 5) Plan open lectures, joint research, and seminars dealing with social education in collaboration with local companies and municipalities.
 - 6) Other
4. Address: Furo-cho, Chikusa-ku, Nagoya-shi, Aichi Prefecture, 464-8601
5. Starting Date: 2018/4/1 or as soon as possible past this date
6. Employment Status : Full-time with tenure until mandatory retirement age (65 years of age)
7. Qualifications:
 - 1) Applicant should hold a Ph.D. in the field of Education, or have research achievements equivalent to such.
 - 2) Applicant should be skilled in teaching in their areas of specialty or other related fields. Experience in teaching related subjects is desirable.

3) Applicants must have adequate Japanese proficiency to carry out their duties within the campus, including deliberating in committee meetings, and organizing and managing committees as chair

4) Applicants should be willing to take charge of open lectures and joint research projects for workers related to social education, to be conducted in collaboration with local municipalities.

8. Salary: To be determined by the Nagoya University faculty pay schedule, pending educational background and past work experience

Social Insurance: provided

9. Application Period: All documents must arrive by May 10, 2017.

10. Application Documents:

*Attach Japanese translations of all documents except for original papers.

1) Curriculum Vitae (A4 size, free format. CVs must include information such as date of birth, current address, phone number or e-mail reachable during the daytime, academic history, employment history, award history, and certifications, with a passport size photo taken within 6 months attached)

2) List of Research Achievements (Please distinguish into multiple categories by Books and Book Chapters, Refereed Journal Articles, Other Articles or Research Reports, Conference Presentations, etc., listing these in order from the most recent to oldest)

3) Original or offprint copies of five most outstanding publications or certifying document of other achievements (Photocopies allowed)

4) Summary of each of 3) above (brief summary of half a page each)

5) List of external and competitive grants and received (indicating principle investigator's name and amount of allotment)

6) List of achievements including awards, academic activities, and major social contributions

7) List of educational and employment backgrounds (A4 size, 1 page)

8) Statement of research and educational interests (A4 size, 1 page. Please discuss plans for research and education after joining Nagoya University, and how you can contribute to your affiliated department)

9) Syllabus of a comprehensive subject on social education intended for 2nd and 3rd year undergraduate students of the School of Education (for half a semester, 2 credits)

11. Mailing Address for Application Documents:

Nagoya University Graduate School of Education and Human Development, Furo-Cho, Chikusa-Ku, Nagoya-Shi, Aichi Prefecture 464-8601 JAPAN

Address to Search Committee Chair: Asuka Kawano, PhD

Please be sure to write “Application documents for position opening for the Department of Educational Sciences Lifelong Education” in red ink on the envelope and send it via simplified registered mail.

12. Selection Process (Selection Method, Hiring Decision), Notification of Results:

The Search Committee will screen applications. Final candidates may be asked to attend an interview once application screening has been completed (All costs associated with attending the interview, such as travel or transportation expenses, will be the sole responsibility of the applicant). Applicants may also be requested to provide additional documents during the selection process.

Applicants will be informed of the results of the selection in writing after the screening process has been completed.

13. Contact Details:

Nagoya University Graduate School of Education and Human Development,
Department of Educational Sciences, Lifelong Education and Development Course,
Adult and Lifelong Education Area

Asuka Kawano, Associate Professor

TEL : 052-789-2640

e-mail : kawano.asuka@i.mbox.nagoya-u.ac.jp

*Please send all inquiries via e-mail.

14. Notes:

- 1) Personal Information provided by applicants are used only for selection purposes. In addition, please understand that any submitted documents will not returned to applicants, and we will take full responsibility in discarding materials once the selection has been concluded.
- 2) Nagoya University is an active equal opportunity employer.