- Assistant professorships have a 5 year term.
After 4 years, an evaluation is done, and in case of success the candidate is offered a tenured position. In case of leave associated to life events (such as child birth, etc.), the evaluation period may be extended. In case the evaluation does not result in a tenured position, a 1-year position as designated assistant professor will be granted when the term ends.

Notes

- It is possible to apply for other announced positions in our department as well.
- After screening of applications, successful candidates will be invited for a nonpublic colloquium talk (about one hour) and interview.
- The application materials will be disposed of appropriately as soon as the screening process is over.
- Please indicate in your CV if there are life events (such as childbirth, elderly care, etc.) that you wish to be considered by the search committee.
- In November 2021, in accordance with the clarification of the scope of control for “deemed exports” under the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act (“FEFTA”), some provision of sensitive technology to faculty members by universities and research institutions has become subject to control under the FEFTA. Consistently with this change, when applying for faculty positions, the applicant will be required to submit a “Declaration of applicable specific categories” based on the “Flowchart for determining applicable specific categories.” The successful applicant will also be required to submit a “Letter of confirmation” at the time of the recruitment.
